A Brief History of Pit Stop BBQ & Grill

Don Davis established Pit Stop Bar-B-Que & Grill in 1995. The original location was literally a "pit stop". Barbeque was sold out of a walk-thru window and a drive thru window on the corner of Central Avenue and U.S. HWY 82 in Tifton. There was no dining room. After much encouragement from loyal customers to expand, Pit Stop purchased today's current location on I-75. The size of the restaurant went from approximately 600 to 8,000 square feet with a current seating capacity of 180.

Because Pit Stop Bar-B-Que had a huge following of loyal customers all over the south, Don decided to keep the same name, but added "& Grill" making it Pit Stop Bar-B-Que & Grill. The menu also grew to offer more choices to its customers. Not only is Pit Stop known for its excellent barbeque, but it is also noted for the best steaks and burgers anywhere.

Pit Stop's business thrives on local and repeat clientele, as well as travelers along I-75 looking for something new and different other than the same old fast food. Once customers dine at Pit Stop BBQ, they always come back. Travelers often comment that they make travel plans just so they can time their trip to eat at Pit Stop BBQ & Grill. How is that for an accolade?

Although Don doesn't personally greet the customers anymore, his legacy lives on in his food and his staff. Since his death in October 2008, Don's wife, Carole, and his daughter, Denise, continue to own and operate Pit Stop with the help of their very loyal staff.

Don was a perfectionist whose attention to serving only the highest quality of meats and foods was never compromised. He always looked for ways to improve the quality of his food, even if it meant raising his own costs. This same passion for excellence is evident today. The same recipes are precisely followed creating the same quality of food that Pit Stop's customers have grown to expect. Very few changes have been made to the menu. Don would give Carole and Denise two thumbs up for keeping pace with the times while maintaining the original recipes.

Carole, Denise and all the staff at Pit Stop Bar-B-Que & Grill welcome you! They hope you enjoy the food and appreciate the opportunity to serve you. The biggest compliment you can give Pit Stop is to return and bring a friend or a family member.
